The City of Sarasota welcomes the public to meet and discuss the St. Armands Key Complete Streets project. The purpose of this project is to improve pedestrian walkability, transportation facilities, enhance safety and accessibility, beautify the right-of way, and support economic growth. A consultant has been selected to study and design St. Armands Key Complete Streets but due to rising costs for design and construction projects, this Complete Streets project has been paused until the City of Sarasota receives additional community input.

The City of Sarasota would like to hear from the residents and businesses as to what level of improvements they would like to see for St. Armands Key. This meeting will showcase a timeline, cost, and improvement options related to complete streets and streetscapes, in order to generate public feedback or a preferred option.
